

Arlington Youth Center to open Saturday, April 20th

Big plans are being made for the opening of Arlington Heights Youth Center Saturday, April 20. The entire field house will be used. An outside band has been secured and there will be an original floor show with members of the local high school as the artists.

This event will be open exclusively to those who are eligible for membership. Those who may not have previously obtained their membership card will be able to secure them at the door. Membership is based on the age of the applicant. He or she must be a teen-ager, not over 19 years of age and have graduated from an elementary school. Membership is limited to the area of the Arlington Heights school district but it is not limited to those who are attending high school.

Open house later
The open house when adults will be able to inspect the center will be held later. The officers want to wait until all decorations and furniture are in place when dads and mothers will have the opportunity to see "how we do it," says President Jens Rask.

Rambli inn chosen
The name adopted on vote of the executive committee is Rambli Inn. That name was suggested by Pat Meehan and was selected from 100 names offered by the high school student body. The center will be open Wednesday afternoons and evenings. Those hours are temporary. Henry Durland of Mt. Prospect will paint the murals on the walls of the lounge.

Mrs. Mills director
Mrs. Muriel Mills will for the present be in charge of the Youth Center as its director. She has taken special courses at Michigan State College and at Arthur Murray's National Dancing School. The officers are: Jens Rask, president; Daniel Baldwin, secretary; Chas. Jirak and Jacqueline Ryan, treasurers.

Failure to find a home forces resale of Arlington store

Walter D. Garretson who recently purchased the Mort Green confectionery and ice cream store at Dunton and Davis street, has now in turn sold the business to Earl Green, who took charge April 1. Mr. Garretson desires to thank those who favored him with their patronage and regrets that his inability to find a place to reside in Arlington forced him to give up the store. "Arlington Heights is a town of fine people," said Mr. Garretson, "and I wish I could have become a resident."

92 years old and still a Republican

Mrs. Ida Meyer (right) is 92 years old, but she insisted upon being allowed to vote at Tuesday's primary. "I am a strong enough Republican," stated Mrs. Meyer, "to want to vote, even at a primary where there is little opposition."

Her companion, on crutches, is Christine Borsick, 80, who did not want to be left behind.

The two women are residents of the Lutheran Old Folks Home at Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Meyer is always cheerful and insists when she is able on wiping the dishes and preparing the vegetables at the home. She came from Germany in 1891 and became an American citizen by marriage the following year.

Vocal concert at Arlington high Thursday

The Vocal Department of the Arlington Heights Township High School will present a concert at 8:15 o'clock, Thursday evening, April 11, in the high school auditorium.

Appearing on the program will be the Mixed Chorus, Girls' Chorus, and Triple Trio. Florence Lunning, soprano, will be featured in a solo number. Mary and David Warner will sing "At Dawning" in a duet arrangement. Dick Everett will play two piano numbers, one of which will be the popular "Polonaise" by Chopin.

The Mixed Chorus and Girls' Chorus will present a varied program, including classical, operatic and popular selections. The Triple Trio, as its first number, will sing HALLELUJAH, from "Hit the Deck," in memory of the late Vincent Youmans.

Admission to the concert is free. Doors open at 7:30 p. m.

School vacations start next week

Spring vacations for all Arlington Heights schools start next week. The elementary and high school pupils will have no school the entire week. St. Peter Lutheran school will have no sessions during the week and will not reopen until Tuesday morning, April 23.

St. James school's vacation will be from Thursday, April 18 to and including Monday, April 22.

The public schools are having their customary number of school sessions this year, meeting the state law which requires 185 school days. Both schools will close on June 7th.

Light vote registered at primary

It was a small primary vote Tuesday throughout Cook county. Due to two local contests for committee, there was a comparative heavy voting among the democrats in Wheeling township and the Republicans in Schaumburg township.

The county Democratic organization had no opposition and all candidates endorsed by the Republican organization were winners. Republicans polled 63,621 votes in the suburbs and the Democrats 43,906.

Busse high man
County Commissioner Busse was high man on the Republican ticket, receiving over 4,000 more votes than any other candidate for any office. He was given 47,833. His running mates received, Erickson, 46,134; Nixon, 43,231; Miller, 34,775; and Mackler 32,875. The highest opposing candidate received 16,366.

Van der Vries, Reich, winners

Mrs. Van der Vries received 5,123 votes for state representative. Second place on the ticket was hotly contested by Vernon W. Reich and Arthur Sprague. Reich won 3,865 to 2,758.

Wins by one vote

It was a close race between Louis Redeker and Albert Berlin for Republican committee in Schaumburg township. Berlin won by one vote, 133 to 132.

Clark easy winner

Wheeling Democrats polled 535 votes Tuesday, evidently brought out by the contest for township committee. Jack Clark, present committee member received 378 votes against 157 for Michael Zeravich. Mike carried his home precinct 117 to 84, also precinct 13 six to five. It was another story in the village of Arlington Heights where he did not receive a vote in five precincts. The vote by precincts:

Interview Truman

Keen Teens find pres. favor draft and youth

Laurel Middel, James Nangle at conference

Among the Keen Teen reporters interviewing President Truman in Chicago were Laurel Middel of Arlington Heights high school and Jim Nangle of Palatine high school. Laurel's account of the interview follows:

by LAUREL MIDDEL
A precedent was broken last Saturday when President Truman held a press conference with 100 teen-age journalists, representing 250,000 high school students in the Chicago area. I felt very proud to be one of the Keen Teen reporters, really making history. This interview was made possible by the Chicago Daily News.

We met the morning of that eventful day at the Daily News building to have our press cards checked and receive identifying red ribbons, and then were crowded into three buses. It took but a short time to reach the hotel because of a police escort which took us through stop lights and around traffic tie-ups. Everyone on the street stopped to wonder about us except those standing in a nylon line on Randolph Street. Arriving at the Blackstone Hotel we were ushered past a guard of policemen, firemen and bellboys to the elevator and up to the third floor, where we impatiently awaited the President. It was almost an hour before the executive's car reached the street below us, but the time seemed to fly. Soon the photographers arrived and stationed themselves along the sides of the room.

President Truman entered the room! Accompanying him were his secretary, Mr. Charles Ross; a naval aide, Miss Valerie Lauderdale; Keen Teen reporter for the Daily News; and several Secret Service men. Mr. Ross explained that the conference was to be just like those held at the White House and then introduced Pres-

Radio parts plant to open in three weeks

Grigsby-Allison Co., Inc., Arlington Heights' newest manufacturing company, expects to be in operation within three weeks. They will continue the policy used in the construction of the plant and hire local people as much as possible. They realize that pleasant working conditions and accessibility will be a factor in attracting employees.

In a letter personally presented to the Arlington Heights village board Monday evening by Messrs. Grigsby and Allison, that firm asked the municipality to take what ever steps that may be necessary to make possible the construction of an improved street to their plant, which they state would be a very definite convenience for many Arlington Heights people residing on the south side of the village and would further serve to open up a heretofore dormant section of the village.

The village board will endeavor to secure the approval of the state highway department to use of state gas tax funds. The manufacturing company is ready to stand half of the expense.

Rally Friday for persons interested
in girl scouts

Mrs. Alva H. Meyer, president of the Arlington Heights Girl Scout Council, announces a rally meeting for all Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights citizens who are interested in Girl Scout work. It will be held on Friday afternoon, 3:30 o'clock in the Arlington Heights field house.

The president of the Mount Prospect Girl Scout Council, Mrs. Fred Tice, and Mrs. Meyer attended a regional meeting of Girl Scouts last Tuesday in the LaSalle hotel. Lady Baden-Powell of England, head of world girl scouting, gave a talk on internationalism at this time. The main parts of her address will be reviewed at the aforementioned rally on Friday.

Mrs. Frank Carr, well known will also be featured in several vocal selections.

Final report on March of Dimes

Final reports in the Country Towns Division of the recent March of Dimes campaign show a total of $101,639, it was reported this week by Arthur F. Senior, chairman. The grand total for the overall campaign in Cook County is now $558,850 with approximately $50,000 still outstanding, he reported.

Suburban communities with totals of $500 or more include Arlington Heights, $977; Barrington, $789; Des Plaines, $1,126; Glenview-Golf, $1,916.

Firms engaged in subdividing properties within the corporate limits of Arlington Heights will not be allowed to construct roadways that will be a liability to the municipality and the people who purchase the adjoining lots. Mayor Goedke stopped road construction in Arlington Ridge this week. The village board instructed its engineer and attorney to prepare the necessary ordinance to require adequate inspection of all streets installed by subdividers and to establish the minimum requirements for such construction.

The proposed specifications will require prepared roadways not less than 18 feet wide to be paved or built with an eight inch stone base with a sealing coat top of two inches. Too often new resident who have homes on unimproved streets expect the village to maintain the roadways. Strict provisions of the original construction of the roads will save the village a lot of maintenance costs and provide a year-round street for the lot owners.

Attorney Hugo J. Thal presented a resolution authorizing the foreclosure for special assessments on 53 lots in various parts of the village. A pledge of guarantee bids of 35% on unimproved property was given to the board.

Protect water tower

Arlington Heights large water tower has gone without a repainting job since 1938. The aldermen decided that something should be done about it and after listening to the merits of electro-rust proofing given by Frank McDonald and the recommendation of Art Consoer, ordered the purchase of the needed equipment at a cost of $480. "Unless remedial measures are taken," stated Engineer Consoer, "the life of a water tower is from 20 to 30 years." The aldermen decided that the present water tower, installed 13 years ago, was too valuable to be ignored.

Arlington Heights Park Board has asked the consent of the C. & N. W. Ry. to the location of a 155 mm. gun in the park bounded by the C. & N. W. Ry., Dunton street, Northwest, Highway and Vail street.

Arlington Post No. 981 V. F. W. will present this field piece to the community and have suggested that location. The park board members are in accord with the proposed location of the gun.

A copy of the letter to the railroad company was read to the village board Monday evening.

The suggestion has been made that a new flag pole be erected at the new site, which would form an ideal background for the annual Armistice Day program and for other patriotic programs.

Ask rezoning in Stonegate

Request of W. C. Tacket, Inc. for rezoning of lots in Stonegate, facing the highway and west of Stonegate tavern, was referred to the zoning board of appeals. The petitioner assured the board arrangements had been made with Master Electric Co. to exchange present lot within that area for a lot east of the tavern. A building permit had previously been issued to the electric company. If the rezoning is approved, it will be zoned for residential apartments in place of business.

The treasurer was authorized to return building permit fees, totaling $192, on four buildings that can not be erected under present regulations.

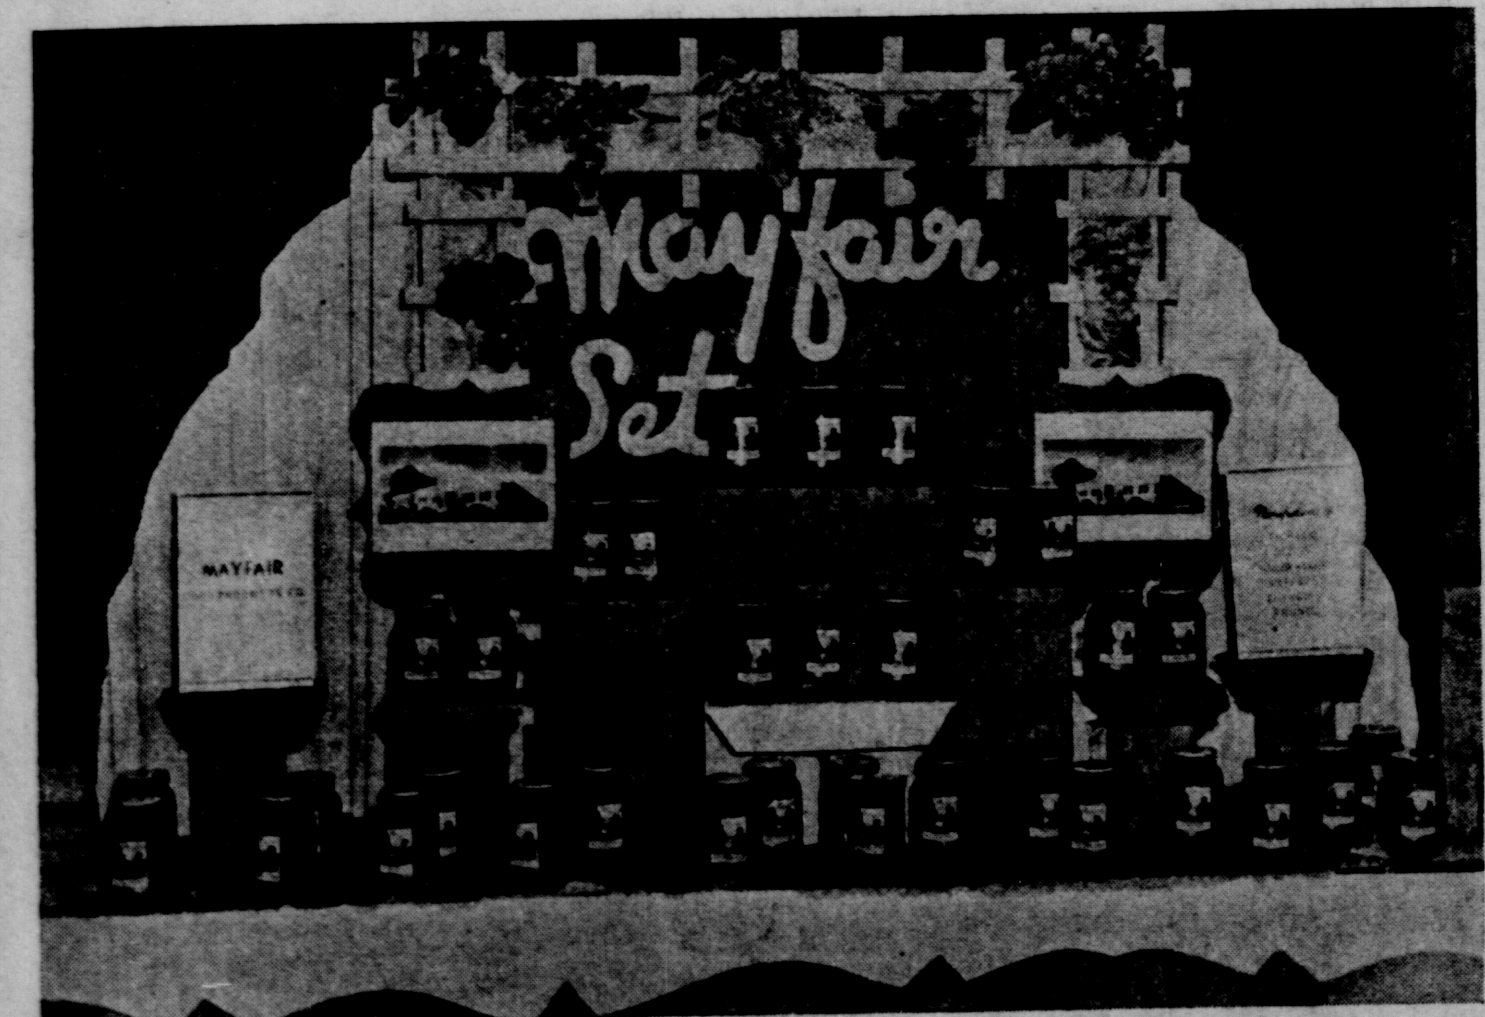

A letter of appreciation was received from R. D. Bradle for the board's cooperation in his efforts to secure authority to construct a garage-residential unit on No. Dunton. He had withdrawn his request owing to the opposition encountered.

Raise meter prices
The prices of meters has been raised due to advance in wholesale costs. Three-quarters inch water meters will hereafter cost $25 and five-eighths $18. Replacement costs have been set at $13.50 and $20.50, respectively.

The board accepted the offer of Mr. Laurin to audit the corporate accounts of the present year at a fee of $400 and to perform a two-year special assessment audit for $375 to $450.

The municipality accepted the dedication by Markman, Donovan & Sullivan of a lot in Arlington Ridge which will permit the extension of Princeton avenue to the Northwest Highway. The board made it plain that acceptance of the street did not mean that the village would improve it.

Pay business licenses
It will not be long before patrons of Arlington Heights business places will know which ones have paid their business license fees. Attractive window stickers are on the way. The business houses are not waiting for the arrival of the stickers before paying their fees. The clerk's office has already sold more business licenses than last year.

MAYFAIR SET PRODUCTS may have a national reputation but many Arlington Heights people are being first introduced to them by means of the above attractive display in the lobby of the Arlington Heights National Bank. Their products are bottled pickles, beets, sauer kraut, peppers, cherries, prunes. Their new factory in Arlington Heights is nearing completion.

Scholarship given

Gloria Jorgensen of Arlington Heights high school has received an honor tuition scholarship from St. Mary-of-the-Woods College. She is to be congratulated for her excellent high school record which has made this possible. That she is very deserving is evident in the fact that at present she ranks second highest in scholarship in the senior class.

Gloria was one of the eight juniors selected for the National Honor Society last year, and this year she has held the job of secretary in this organization, doing her job very well. She is also an active member of the Library Club.

Although this scholarship is awarded for one year only, it can be renewed if the student maintains a high standard in college. Gloria, it is certain, can do so. Congratulations, Gloria, and loads of luck.

Mrs. Ray Voelker and son, Raymond, Jr., of Des Moines are spending a few days at the home of her in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Voelker. They are enroute to Pearl Harbor where they will join EMc Ray Voelker, who is still there with the navy.

Outline plans for restriction of local housing

On March 26, 1946, the Civilian Production Administration issued Veterans Housing Program Order No. 1, an order to restrict various kinds of construction and the use of building material in order to make certain that materials might be available for the veterans housing program. We are setting out the essential parts of this order by way of an answer to the many questions which will naturally arise.

Construction, repair, and alteration of various types of buildings can be undertaken WITHOUT A PERMIT where the cost does not exceed (1) $400 in the case of a house occupied by one to five families; (2) $1,000 in the case of hotels, and apartment houses; (3) $1,000 in the case of a store or commercial building; (4) $1,000 in the case of outbuildings on a farm; (5) $1,000 in the case of a church, school, hospital or public building; and (6) $15,000 in the case of certain factory or other industrial structures. No permit is needed to make minimum repairs caused by fire, flood or windstorm. In the case of farm buildings or farm houses so damaged repairs can be made up to $6,000 if the work is started in sixty days after the disaster. No permit is needed for painting or papering.

Work for which permit is required Anybody and everybody who wants to build a new house or store or other structure where the cost exceeds the amounts set forth in the foregoing paragraph must get a permit to build. This means total cost, including labor, materials and contractors' fees. In other words, anybody who wants to build a house or store or other structure (assuming the cost is more than the amounts set out above) will have to obtain a permit.

Application for a permit must be made on a special form known as CPA form 4386 in the case of construction other than farm construction and such application must be filed with the nearest office of the Federal Housing Administration. In the case of farm construction, CPA Form 4423 is required and must be filed with the County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

Priorities will be issued with the permits only in the case of veterans low cost housing and it is expected that such priorities will be honored by suppliers of materials. In all other cases, the permit to repair or build does not guarantee materials. It simply gives one the privilege of scrambling for whatever materials may be available. The emphasis is on homes costing around $6,000 for veterans and for awhile, at least, a non-veteran will have a very slight chance to get a permit unless it is for the purpose of renting or selling such a home to a veteran.

Work already under way If a house or other structure was actually under construction on March 26th when the order was issued, no permit will be required to complete it. Merely filling plans or breaking ground or having some material on hand would not be enough to allow further work to be done without a permit. Work "under construction" would mean a job where the cellar had been excavated and all or a substantial part of the foundation had been installed.

Isabelle Feffer weds Gerald Stevenson

Wearing a gown of white tulle with a lace yoke, Miss Isabelle Feffer, daughter of Mrs. Mary Feffer of Wheeling, became the bride of Gerald R. Stevenson, son of Mrs. J. Godsey of Cuba. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

The ceremony took place March 17 at 2 o'clock in the First Congregational church of Des Plaines. The bride's mother held a reception for 500 guests in the Wheeling school.

Miss Mildred Papenfus was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pink chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The bride's mother wore an aqua dress and black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore navy blue and had a corsage of white carnations.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Steve Krong. Robert Lee Stevenson served his brother as best man.

The bridegroom served 43 months in the U. S. army overseas and took part in five major battles.

Edward Christens host at twentyfifth anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christens, 210 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, say that it does not seem like 25 years since Edward Christens and Miss Mary Geiger took their marriage vows, in an Austin church. If they experienced any sorrows during those years they were all forgotten Saturday, March 30, when 160 guests helped them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at the Arlington Heights field house.

The celebration started with a 6:30 supper for the 160. The tables were illuminated with candles and were very prettily decorated in silver and peach, the bride also being dressed in those colors. Rev. Olterbi, pastor of the North Austin Lutheran church and Rev. Kemp of Arlington Heights Old Folks Home gave appropriate talks at the tables as also did an old time friend of the Christens, Nicholas Wick, who will celebrate his 50th anniversary in seven years and that evening secured the promise of the Christens that they would then be present as they were on his 25th.

An orchestra furnished the music for the dancing. The hours passed quickly. "The memory of this evening with the many fine gifts we received will last until we celebrate our fiftieth anniversary on March 30, 1971," said the two hosts as they bid their guests good-bye.

The Christens came to Arlington Heights eleven years ago when they purchased a delicatessen store from Mrs. Kuhlman. Mr. Christens became acquainted with Arlington Heights while delivering bakery goods at the Kuhlman store and it was upon the insistence of the latter that Mr. Christens decided to take a chance by going into business here. He has never been sorry because as he says, "Arlington people have been very good to us."

Woman's club hears of soil conservation

The Conservation and Garden Department of the Arlington Hts. Woman's Club presented Mrs. E. E. Byerrum, vice president of the Northern Region, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, as its guest speaker at the meeting held Wednesday, April 3.

Mrs. Byerrum served for three years as State Chairman of Conservation for the Illinois Federation and is well versed in her subject. She stressed the need for conservation of our natural resources, soil, forests, water and wild life and confined her talk to the problems in Illinois. A large project of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs has been the planting of 1,000 acres of trees in southern Illinois in a reforestation program. Mrs. Byerrum told of how this was accomplished and the benefits being derived from this in flood control and soil erosion.

Preceding the talk, the children's choir from St. Peter and Paul's Lutheran churches, under the direction of Mr. Preuss, sang several selections appropriate to the Lenten season. Both the children and their director are to be complimented on their work.

Other guests were Mrs. Carl Moyer, Chicago, president of the Seventh District, and Mrs. E. R. Wuerttenburger, Des Plaines, District vice president. Both were introduced and gave very short talks.

Naomi Smart bride of Dr. Harry Vanley

The Wee Kirk O' The Heather, Glendale, California, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Naomi Ruth Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smart, Sr., to Dr. Harry Vanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Vanley, Hollywood, Calif. The ceremony was performed Mar. 30 at 5 p. m. by the Rev. R. H. Shaffer.

Best man for the groom was his brother, Ensign Jerry Vanley.

The Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were played and other music during the ceremony were "At Dawn" and "Claire de Lune."

A reception for forty guests was held at the home of Dr. Vanley's parents, 616 N. Gramercy Place, Hollywood.

Dr. and Mrs. Vanley enjoyed a nine day wedding trip to Del Mar, California, and other points south of Del Mar. The young couple will be at home at 616 Gramercy Place, Hollywood, California, for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Masny of Arlington Heights announce the engagement of their daughter, Vivian, to Mr. Eugene Hugo of Wheeling.

Harriet Mecklenburg, Roderich Hodges wed

Miss Harriet Mecklenburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mecklenburg, Mt. Prospect, became the bride of Roderich Hodges of Miami, Florida, on April 6. The wedding took place at 7:40 p. m. in the soft glow of candlelight at the Mt. Prospect St. Paul Lutheran church, the Rev. J. E. A. Mueller pronouncing the solemn vows.

The bride was fashionably gowned in a white satin dress with a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was made up of white carnations.

Margaret Mecklenburg, the bride's sister and only attendant, served as maid of honor and was attired in a pink taffeta, drape effect, dress set off by pale green gloves. She carried deep pink carnations with matching spray for a headress.

Acting as best man for the groom was William Schwartz of Mt. Prospect. Elmer Winkelman, uncle of the bride, served as usher.

Miss Mecklenburg was given in marriage by her father. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Elmer Jackisch as the bride walked down the aisle. During the ceremony Lieberstraum was played.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Mecklenburg was dressed in a navy blue crepe dress trimmed with a white carnation corsage.

A reception for 100 guests, with dancing and refreshments, was held at the Mt. Prospect VFW home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges will leave April 15 for Denver, Colo., which is to be their new home.

Celebrates 84th birthday

April 5 was a gala day for Mrs. Minnie Jahn who celebrated her 84th birthday in real style. She entertained members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the VFW at a 1:30 luncheon in her home, 26 N. Pine ave., Arlington Hgts.

Open house for relatives and friends was held during the remainder of the afternoon. Among the guests were her three great grandchildren, Mary and Michael O'Connell and Billy Foley.

Mrs. Jahn was the mother of nine children, only three of whom remain. They are Robert who makes his home with his mother at 16 N. Pine; Richard, 4 South Pine and Mrs. Ed. Foley, 307 N. State rd., all of Arlington Hgts.

Mrs. Jahn was born in Germany, coming to America about 1893. She resided in Palestine for a time, then moved to Arlington Hgts., which has been her home 46 years. Mr. Jahn died in 1922.

Mrs. Jahn's birthday is really April 6 and her grandson, Richard Jahn has a birthday the same day. They have been able to celebrate every birthday together for the past 20 years, but this year the army kept Richard from being present. However, she received birthday congratulations from him from his station at Kessler Field, Miss., along with a lovely plant to show that he was thinking of her.

Tax rush is on —

With all Cook county tax bills out and all collectors offices open the rush to pay the 1945 taxes is on. All township collectors report a brisk opening business and many Chicago people who own property in the country towns are coming out into the country towns to pay the local collectors rather than buck the long lines at the county building.

Several Chicago people have tried to pay their Chicago taxes to the local collectors and when they found that they couldn't do that they said, "Well, I'll mail it in, that jam at the county building is awful."

All customers are handled speedily at the township collectors offices and there is no waiting in long lines. In this respect the country people have it all over their city cousins who have to make their payments at the central office in the county building.

There are two weeks left for the residents of the country towns to make their payments to the local collectors and the collectors urge as many as possible to get in early and avoid any last minute rush. Penalty date on all first installment real estate and personal property bills is May 1 at the county building but don't wait for the last days' jam down town; pay your local collectors at their home offices and get prompt and courteous service from the home town boys.

New appraisal rules may increase loans

Home loans may increase in number following the recent issue of new instructions to appraisers and lenders, according to Samuel Kudish, director of finance, Branch No. 7 of the Veterans Administration.

Evaluation of property is now based on prevailing conditions in the local market instead of the previous "reasonable normal value" appraisal required by federal law.

Employers wishing to establish on-the-job training programs for veterans must prepare a normal course of study and submit it to the appropriate state agency for approval. In Illinois, employers must apply to Vernon L. Nickell, superintendent of public instruction, Springfield.

Building trades skills and crafts lead in the on-the-job training program in Illinois with 1,500 veterans under courses drawn up by labor-management committees.

Salaries for medical rating specialists have been boosted from $4,300 to $5,180 yearly in an effort to fill 33 vacancies on disability rating boards. Shortage of medical personnel has caused the present bottleneck in adjudication of claims.

To contact parents of all children eligible for kindergarten

Parents of children who are eligible for kindergarten next year may expect to be contacted by members of the public or parochial Summer Round-up Committees very soon. At that time, they will be provided with the proper blanks and information for the pre-school medical and dental examinations required, by law, of all children before entering school in Arlington Heights.

Parents are asked to make appointments, at once, with their family physician and dentist so that the completed record may be returned to their school on the day set for the Round-up. No examinations will be conducted at the schools on the day of the Round-up.

All parents of children who expect to attend kindergarten next year are urged to be sure that their child's name has been given their school or the chairman of their school's Round-up Committee.

The Public Schools' Round-up is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association, with Mrs. Charles Stadelman as Round-up Chairman. Members of the Round-up committee, who will contact parents of prospective kindergarten pupils, are Mrs. A. J. Schmidt, Mrs. Herbert Gorder, Mrs. William Forrest and Mrs. Andrew Sim.

Mrs. William Edberg is chairman of the St. James' Catholic School Round-up, which is sponsored by the Women's Guild.

The St. Peter's Lutheran School Round-up is sponsored by the Mother's Club, with Mrs. Harold Malzahn as its chairman.

It is the belief of all those connected with these programs that the home is responsible for the health of the pre-school child and that the home can make no greater contribution than to send to the school a pupil physically ready to take full advantage of the opportunities that education has to offer.

Best medical care for vets assured under new statute

New legislation setting up an independent division of medicine and surgery within the Veterans Administration will assure America's disabled veterans the finest medical and surgical care in the world, in the opinion of Commander Davis of Post No. 981, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"This legislation embodies objectives for which the Veterans of Foreign Wars has been clamoring for years," Commander Davis said. "Now the Veterans Administration finally is empowered to ignore Civil Service salary ceilings in employing the best physicians and surgeons obtainable."

"It has been declared by Major General Paul R. Hawley, Director of the Veterans Administration Medical Division, that this new law is a definite guarantee that America's disabled veterans will be able to enjoy a medical service that is second to none in the world."

The original picture has been carefully edited since it was first produced, a number of titles have been changed to bring it up to date, and a beautiful musical score has been added. It is being shown in Arlington Heights under the auspices of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago in cooperation with three of the local churches.

Those who see the picture may help to meet the cost of bringing it to our village by a free will offering as they leave the gymnasium if they care to do so. Any funds contributed beyond actual local expenses will be used by the Church Federation of Greater Chicago for the work of its Department of Ministry to Service Men.

Atomic Energy
Atomic energy is not likely to power locomotives on American railroads in the near future, because of the necessity for providing large and heavy shields around the source of energy. Maintenance work on such equipment might have to be deferred as long as 30 to 50 years, because of the radioactivity of the atomic energy material.

Assault, robbery, attempted rape by visiting GI

Assault, robbery and attempted rape were three charges placed against Sgt. Conrad Bishop the past week end in the court of Judge Sengstock at Des Plaines. Conrad, one of those scheduled to take part in the Army Day parade, committed these crimes in Des Plaines Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers had opened their home to one of the vets taking part in Saturday's celebration in Chicago. After a few drinks the soldier became abusive, finally assaulted Mr. Meyers in his home, robbed him, and then attempted to rape Mrs. Meyers.

Judge Sengstock adjourned the case for 30 days, putting Bishop into custody of the army. They will return the soldier to Kentucky, check on the authenticity of charges, dates, etc., then return him to Des Plaines for court action.

Public Health Week April 7-13

"Know Your Public Health Nurse" is the slogan which the Cook County Friends of Public Health are stressing during the week April 7-13. This organization, which is the Cook County Affiliate of the Illinois Statewide Public Health Committee, was instrumental in bringing about the resolution to establish a Department of Public Health for the County.

Mrs. Clara J. Frank, President of the Friends of Public Health, recommends that the suburban residents of the County acquaint themselves with the health facilities of their communities and ascertain in what ways the public health nurse stands ready to assist them in both sickness and health.

Dr. E. A. Piszczek, in discussing the value which an adequate public health program offers to the community pointed to the achievements which have been made and the requirements which have yet to be met. In the former group he listed the first prenatal clinic in this area under the jurisdiction of the public health department, and the immunization of 90% of the children in the County outside of Chicago, against diphtheria and smallpox. The diagnosis and control of tuberculosis are now of primary importance, inasmuch as crowded housing conditions are aggravating the incidence of the disease, according to Dr. Piszczek.

Mrs. Ernest Wierdt is the Palatine township representative to this volunteer organization for the promotion of public health in suburban Cook county.

Surplus goods

Cast iron soil pipe, an urgently needed item in the housing program, will be sold throughout the nation at fixed prices to dealers holding "CC" and "HH" priorities.

Explaining that only 30% of each inventory, as it is declared surplus, will be reserved for government bodies and preference claimants, the WAA cautioned that orders for the other 70% would be rejected unless accompanied by priorities issued by Civilian Production Administration or Federal Housing Authority.

These priorities are issued to hasten construction of residential and necessary non-residential buildings.

Normal alums to meet at Bismarck

The Chicago Club of Illinois State Normal university alumni, founded in 1888, is arranging a gabfest and luncheon meeting for 11:30 a. m. Saturday, April 27, at the Bismarck hotel. Invitations have gone out to parents of ISNU students in this area as well as to alumni in Cook and DuPage counties.

Dr. Paul Grabow, 2348 Seminary ave., Chicago, who was graduated from ISNU in 1893, will talk about the university way back when, while four new ISNU faculty members will give short talks.

By the Arlington Heights Health Center affiliated with The Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County.

Current news of diphtheria being found in the greater Chicago area is alarming to everyone—particularly every parent with small children.

There is one certain safe means of preventing this dread disease—immunization. This precaution is recognized by doctors, nurses, and medical authorities everywhere, and should be followed at the time in your child's life recommended by your family physician.

Diphtheria is still a most dangerous disease, despite the fact that medical science has made tremendous strides against it. During the past ten years, incidence of the disease has decreased substantially but the rate is still far too high—all because of failure on the part of parents to have their children immunized.

(In 1940, there were 936 cases of diphtheria in Illinois causing 86 deaths—approximately one out of each eleven cases.)

Likewise, smallpox can be prevented, definitely eradicated, by simple vaccination. The future spread of that disease depends upon the number of persons remaining unvaccinated. While this disfiguring malady has been reduced to a minimum, it remains a threat to every single person who has not had successful and repeated vaccinations.

Health education over the years has gone far to break down resistance against immunization. There persists, however, considerable distrust in the minds of some persons as to its effectiveness. A surprising number still label the process as "getting a sore arm for nothing."

IMMUNIZATION IS HERE TO STAY! Through it, disease has been brought under control, and will be finally eradicated in years to come. . . . IF YOU AND YOUR FAMILY DO YOUR PART BY CONSULTING YOUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN AND FOLLOWING HIS ADVICE.

Your weekly treat recipe

Soon now our husbands and sons will be journeying to the lake regions to try their luck at catching fish. When the fish are brought home, it will be up to us meal planners to cook them just right. I offer you, this week, an easy way to prepare a one to three pound fish. (Of course if the luck is poor, you can buy choice fish at your neighborhood market as usual.)

Baked Stuffed Fish
1-3 pound fish
Salt, pepper and dry mustard
Tomato stuffing
1 tsp. melted butter
1 small onion, diced and browned in butter
2 tablespoons diced celery
1 cup dry bread, broken into small pieces

1 teaspoon salt
1 cup tomato pulp
Method: Sprinkle the fish inside and out with seasoning. Mix the stuffing and place inside the fish. Fasten edges together with tooth picks, which can easily be removed. Bake one to one and one half hours in a moderate oven—350°. Baste occasionally with melted butter. Garnish with parsley and lemon slices. Serves six.

Your teeth

Halitosis
Bad breath, or halitosis, is a disagreeable topic for discussion, but its actual presence is even more objectionable. Most of us at some time or another suffer from this unpleasant condition, which, unless checked, is a serious detriment in our social and business relations.

Of even greater importance is the fact that halitosis can be regarded as an indication of serious trouble. Many people seem to have the idea that the causes of bad breath lie wholly within the mouth, an erroneous impression. Here are several causes of halitosis:

1. An unhealthy, diseased or uncleanly condition of the mouth.
2. A diseased condition of the membrane in the nose.
3. The presence of chronically infected tonsils.
4. A diseased condition of the sinuses.
5. Certain diseases of the lungs.
6. Digestive disturbances, temporary or chronic.
7. The use of alcohol and tobacco.

One of the most frequent causes of bad breath is a diseased or unclean mouth. Certainly, a mouth that contains decaying or abscessed teeth or diseased gums can hardly emit a breath that is not objectionable.

The presence of food particles about the teeth or a coated tongue is also a cause of halitosis.

Merrily it Floats Along

The tidal wave that swept across the Pacific came and went before Roland Prest even knew what hit him. He wasn't hurt but gave a description of the mess it made of the Officers Club in Na-ui, Hawaii. A lot of the fellows formed private salvage parties and fished out full liquor bottles floating near shore, but Rol didn't go near the place for fear he'd be asked to "volunteer" for a work detail. It wouldn't have done him much good to collect the souvenirs because later in the day there was a locker inspection whereby the officers took back part of their very depleted stock.

Fiends.

Jean Zelsdorf was mighty glad to see her brother Tom walk in unexpectedly on furlough from the Merchant Marines. Jean has been quite ill in the Palatine hospital since complications set in after her appendectomy around Christmas time. Tom has been sailing along the East Coast but now will be able to spend a little time in ye olde pool hall once more before shipping out again.

Arlington Heights

The pupils of the first grade exhibited 26 bird houses on Bird day. Rosalie Horcher's house was awarded first prize, Donald Thal, second and Gertrude Fitzpatrick, third. In all the high school presented 26 houses. Awards were Lorraine Boeger, 1st, Alice Schneberger, 2nd and Robert Melzer 3rd.

The high school boys have bought new grey baseball suits with maroon stripe and trimming with A. H. on the chest and H. S. on the sleeve.

Roselle

Roy Wertz has bought the confectionery and ice cream business of Mr. Sherkey and will continue the business at the old stand.

J. H. Hattendorf received a shipment of buggies and surreys last week.

Miss Laura Hunerberg and Harry Brockman were married Saturday evening in the church.

Shoulder corsages most popular

The new clothes for Easter have been mostly designed in plain motifs, with accents rather on the styling itself. A majority of the coats and ensembles are perfectly suited for shoulder corsages of real flowers. For the others, the florists have styled floral arrangements to follow neck lines, at a trim waist, as a hairdress or pinned on the accessories—clustered on a new Easter bag, for instance.

Carnations in white and a lovely shade of light pink are extremely popular as shoulder corsages for picture coats and check suits. There are pink roses, too, to pick up perhaps the flower clusters seen on dainty straw hats.

A serene grey crepe dress seen in an Easter fashion preview had a becoming white, pique dicky. The white in it was picked up with Belmont gardenias pinned to a bag carried by the model. Gardenias will also be often worn as shoulder corsages in the Easter parade; or, at the waist, complemented with waxy stephanotis blossoms.

Yes, the corsage is a "must" in this year's Easter parade. Only—don't ask for carnations; the Easter date of April 21 is too late for them.

$4,000 garage blaze destroys 4 cars in Des Plaines

A $4,000 garage blaze at 1:30 a. m. a week ago Sunday in Des Plaines almost completely destroyed a four car garage and burned three vehicles. Autos destroyed included a '41 Studebaker sedan, '40 Plymouth coupe and '40 Oldsmobile coupe. Origin of the fire is not known, though it seems to be a follow-up of the "four-fires-in-one-hour" the Wednesday before.

Lombard electors make compromise on town budget

Electors of the town of York accepted a compromise figure in determining the annual appropriation for the new year. Proposed amount was set at $45,000, while the opposition, representing the Civic League of DuPage county, sought a $32,000 figure. A $37,000 compromise figure was chosen. Cut will be made chiefly in cost of assessors.

Des Plaines seeks to limit weight on Thacker

Heavy trucks taking the short cut on Thacker from Wolf road to the Belt Line tracks are creating a hazard, say Des Plaines city authorities, and the city is asking the county to limit weight of vehicles using that street.

In other action the city council is preparing an ordinance to affix responsibility for littered streets to the places of business that sell products in "take out" paper containers. These include various ice cream parlors, streets in front of which are littered with paper after every evening's business.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

Adversity plays tricks on us all. How often I have heard the expression, "It's just one of those things," used as a synonym for defeat, when it should be used as a challenge to life, a challenge that, flung in the face of misfortune, is at once a battle cry and a philosophy of life.

Many times people complain, "It's just one of those things. Jim could have had the job that Joe got, but Joe was better educated." But why didn't Jim have the education? And why doesn't he start getting it now? In the paper the other day was a story about a man at 72 hanging out his shingle as a lawyer. I know a woman who, at 60 started to college to get the education that her large family of children made impossible for her in her earlier life.

"I haven't time—it's just one of those things," is the indefinite alibi of the person who would be happy, if only he or she had the opportunity to do the things that they have always wanted to do. Yet time is a relative thing, and days are short, while minutes are long. Men have written books in the few minutes spent daily waiting for the wife to finish the evening meal. A half hour in the doctor's waiting room might profitably be spent memorizing a poem you have always wished to learn, or reading an article in your favorite magazine—with pencil in hand, of course, to mark the important spots so you won't have to read the whole article over to find out what you wish to remember.

"It is one of those things," when sickness comes, but careful eating and observance of a few simple rules of health can ward off sickness many times.

It's just one of those things," when our finances eliminate the possibility of a new dress for the wife, but instead of bitterness and griping, the intelligent woman accepts it as a challenge to her imagination and inventiveness and comes out with a stunning and attractive dress made of old material that is at once envied by her lady friends and admired by the men.

It is just one of those things, often, when men and women find themselves in a divorce court—and more than one path leads to Reno. Perhaps a little understanding, a bit of sacrifice, and their children might be reared in a happy, united home, with the sense of security and pride that makes children from happy, considerate homes always outstanding.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Would the Veterans Administration consider a baseball school a legitimate school? I refer to one of those run by the various big league teams. Would they give me the maintenance if I attended such a school?

Answer: A veteran may enroll in any educational or training institution approved by the Veterans Administration. Bona fide baseball schools are acceptable. Maintenance benefits will be paid to veterans attending such a school.

Question: Two other soldiers and I want to start a business in Australia. Do the loan privileges of the G. I. Bill of Rights extend to cover such a business?

Answer: Loan privileges of the G. I. Bill of Rights will not be made to veterans planning business ventures outside the United States; the term "United States" means the several states, territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

Question: I have been told that in order to get unemployment compensation pay allowed under the G. I. Bill, I must be willing to take a job even if it is in a factory where there is a strike. Is that right?

Answer: It is not. You do not have to accept a job which is available directly as a result of a strike, lock-out or other labor dispute. Your refusal to accept such a job will not affect your right to the unemployment pay.

Question: Is it permissible to

To move into vet housing unit in about a month

The first family is scheduled to move into the newly constructed veterans' housing units at Edison Park by May 9. Four buildings, each containing six units, are now under roof. Remaining units are expected to be rented by the end of June. Both Park Ridge and Edison Park opposed the project at Touhy, Overhill and Ozanam avenues.

For the first time in the almost one-hundred year history of Niles Township, there will be no tax levy for the township.

During the past three or four years there have been steady reductions in the various items levied for the Township government, and during the past year the levy was only 1c per $100 of taxes for the Corporate fund, and 2c for the Township Road and Bridge Fund.

There is a cash balance of $39,000 in the Poor Relief Fund, and a cash balance of $17,500 in the Corporate fund.

AROUND the CORNER

Dear Jane:
Well, here I am—writing to you, churning butter and getting a leg tan—all at the same time. How successful I'll be at any one of these is certainly problematical, because I'll have to jump up every few minutes and run into the kitchen to see just how much butter is in the bowl and how much is on the floor! Every minute out of the sun means a shade or two less of that golden brown I'm determined to have this summer. Just once in my life, I'd like to have my leg tan match my face tan!

Where to begin? There's so much I could write to you this week. For instance, just in case you might have missed it, the brother of my old school friend, Natalie, won the Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logan prize of $500.00 for sculpture in the present Chicago and vicinity show at the Art Institute. We always called him, "Wally" Purcell, but his press notices refer to him formally as, John Wallace Purcell. I'm so thrilled for him, I could burst my buttons!

I should like to send you snapshots from several wonderful letters received from sympathetic readers concerning MacDuff's death, but time and space won't permit. Irma Mueller of Arlington Heights wrote an excellent poem entitled, "To the Memory of MacDuff" and Alma Panzer of Schaumburg wrote a sweet note. Mrs. Carlton Smith of Prospect Heights, who is sojourning in Florida, wrote of an amusing incident involving her beloved, 13-year old "Mike" and our Mac, that took place several years ago in Arlington Heights. She said reading about Mac made her anxious to return to Prospect Heights and her daffodils and tulips, even though their winter home on the ocean is in a beautiful spot. We appreciate the thoughtfulness of these writers, and thank them most sincerely. (Time out for the butter!)

You no doubt will be happy to learn that the John Roberts of Palatine, have a brand new daughter out in the Sherman Hospital in Elgin. She will be given the name of Julia Knight in loving remembrance of her paternal grandmother.

The things we ordered from the nursery came this week. Two Norway Maples; two cut-leaved weeping birch; red, white and blue varieties of grape vines, and Boston Ivy for the chimney. Mr. Lincoln is plowing our vegetable garden plot today, so you can readily see we will be knee-deep in loam this week end. Mary Mills says B1 tablets dissolved in water is a miracle worker when used in transplanting bushes, plants and even trees. You can purchase these tablets at feed supply stores.

Tales of the STREET

BY T. C. HART

HOUSING HINT

Mayor Kelly of Chicago has been all hot and bothered for a long time about the housing situation. He's been to Washington about it, he's been on the air telling the world about it and he has bemoaned the fact that returning service men and their wives could find no place to stay in Chicago and had to park in hotel lobbies and railroad stations.

Yet the Mayor has missed a bet in his own front yard or more concisely, the Chicago loop. There are rooms in the loop being used for other things that might well be the resting place of some tired veteran and his family. The mayor could take a walk some afternoon and see the Chicago loop as it is. He might meet a reporter after lunch and make a tour of the loop to see what is happening to some of the housing. He and the reporter might visit the loop hotels and hear the old repeated "No Rooms" and see people camped around the hotel lobbies, hopefully waiting for some one to give up a room.

It would get to be an old story as the mayor and the reporter might get hungry or thirsty. They might drop into a bar off a hotel lobby and have a bottle of pop and a sandwich. As they left the bar and walked into the hotel lobby a man standing in the lobby nods to the reporter and mentions a number.

The mayor and the reporter walk over to the elevators and as the lift shoots upward the reporter calls a floor. The elevator stops and the visitors find themselves in a long hallway nicely carpeted. All is quiet, as it should be in any well ordered hotel. They walk down the hall and the reporter opens a door without the ceremony of knocking.

They enter a large room. It's well carpeted and has plenty of windows. There is an alcove at one end, a large clothes closet and a large bathroom. It would make a dandy resting place for some returning G. I. and his family, but it isn't being used for any such purpose.

Mayor astounded by the crowd
There are about thirty people in the room, men and women. They look like prosperous neighborhood business people. In the alcove two fellows are sitting at a desk with big rolls of bills in their hands. There are sheets on the wall and a fellow in front of the sheets with head phones on, calls out "They're nearing the post in Florida."

By now the mayor is, no doubt, "astounded," at what he sees. He is in the midst of one of the loop's bookie joints, of which there aren't supposed to be any. The mayor always used to be astounded at conditions when Tom Courtney, then state's attorney, used to haul him before the County Grand Jury to tell what he knew about things.

Yes, the mayor was astounded that such things used to exist and then police captains got fired, the commissioner of police was put on the pan and the fur flew generally.

Of course Tom Courtney isn't state's attorney any longer and the present state's attorney doesn't give the mayor a chance to be astounded because he doesn't haul the mayor before the grand jury any more. But the mayor's new police commissioner was very emphatic that gambling wasn't going to flourish while he was head of the police department; but if the mayor just went on a walk with that reporter he'd be right in the middle of where it was flourishing and in a hotel room that should be used to relieve the housing shortage to boot.

What could the mayor do about it? Well he might prevail upon his friend the governor to license those places and move them out of some vacant lot somewhere. And the OPA regulations about prices for hotel rooms are probably being violated too, for it's a 30-12 and 6 shot that that room and the others like it are paying more per day than a tired veteran would be required to pay.

Of course we don't expect that the mayor will ever take any such walk with a reporter and we don't expect things will ever be much different than in the days when the mayor used to be speechless before the grand jury, but there's a housing shortage in Chicago and the mayor is missing a bet on the housing business.

But their political machines use grease to make the wheels go round and the rackets are one of the greatest sources of political grease even if some weary G. I. has to camp on a park bench because the hotels are all "sold out."

MONTH AHEAD

This spring is just about a month ahead of time. We have seen many springs when the foliage hasn't been as far out this time in May as it is right now. Fruit trees are bursting into bloom and it's freezing ice at night, all of which doesn't look any too good for the fruit crop in these parts again this year. Maybe with a spell of cool weather some of the blooms will be held back a while and there will be some fruit.

The southern Illinois fruit belt is trembling in fear of a late frost as their blooms are way ahead.

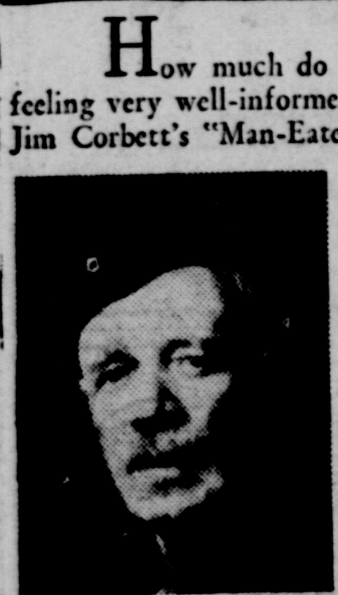

TOWN MEETINGS

The old annual town meetings "ain't what they used to be." Many towns had to go out and

READING & WRITING

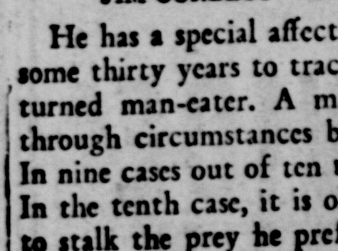

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

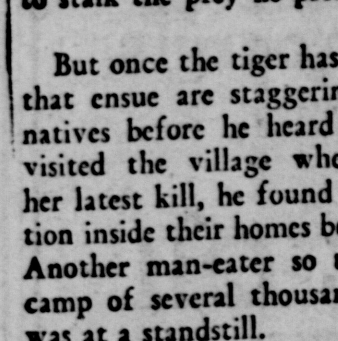

How much do you know about man-eating tigers? We are feeling very well-informed on this subject ourselves, after a perusal of Jim Corbett's "Man-Eaters of Kumaon," a Book-of-the-Month Club selection for April. Perhaps we shan't have an occasion to put all this information to immediate practical use, but in the meantime, it's fine for dinner conversation.

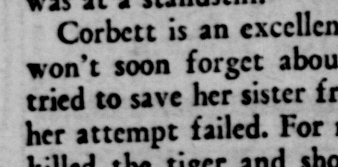

Mr. Corbett belongs to one of those English families who have made their domicile in India. From childhood, he has wandered freely through the dense jungles to the south of his home in the Kumaon Hills. He is as at home there as most of us are on the main street of our home town. A trampled leaf or the call of a deer have a meaning and a warning as clear as any highway signs. And his marksmanship is uncanny.

He has a special affection for the tiger; nevertheless, he has devoted some thirty years to tracking down those few of the species who have turned man-eater. A man-eater is a tiger who has been compelled, through circumstances beyond its control, to adopt a diet alien to it. In nine cases out of ten this is due to wounds—often inflicted by man. In the tenth case, it is old age which makes it impossible for the tiger to stalk the prey he prefers.

But once the tiger has learned how easy a meal a man is, the ravages that ensue are staggering. Corbett's first tiger had slaughtered 434 natives before he heard of her. When he visited the village where she had made her latest kill, he found the entire population inside their homes behind locked doors. Another man-eater so terrorized a work-camp of several thousand men that labor was at a standstill.

Corbett is an excellent story teller. You won't soon forget about the woman who tried to save her sister from a man-eater—and was stricken dumb when her attempt failed. For months she could not speak, but when Corbett killed the tiger and showed her the skin, she was again able to talk.

There is suspense all through this book. The time, for instance, when Corbett, suffering from a sore throat, is trying to locate the beast nearby. His throat begins to tickle, he wants to cough, but knows that the least human sound will reveal his position. He manages to imitate the alarm call of the langur monkey, a sound familiar to the tiger. Later, he finds her at five feet distance behind a fallen tree. He shoots first and inquires afterwards—then has professional qualms when he realizes she was asleep. Even a man-eater, he thinks, ought not to be shot unawares.

No car bargains

Vets given bum steer on surplus car purchases

War veterans who have been dreaming about that luxurious automobile they plan buying at a tremendous bargain from the Surplus Property division of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, in the near future, may just as well wake up and forget it, according to a report of a special investigating committee of the American Legion, Department of Illinois, made public today by Dr. L. Arthur Platts, commander of the 9th district.

The report was submitted following a lengthy investigation by the committee, which was headed by Joseph F. Novotny, past Cook County Commander of the Legion.

Solution of the entire problem, Chairman Novotny stated, resulted from a careful perusal of Regulation No. 7 of the Surplus Property Administrative regulations which provides that "all equipment not required by Federal Agencies, state, or local governments will be offered next to honorably discharged veterans."

With marketing conditions as they are at present, the report stated, this results in federal, state, and local governments taking all the available trucks and other transportation vehicles and leaving nothing but damaged and unusable vehicles for veterans. In the area served by the Chicago office there are 35,000 applicants for each 1,000 vehicles made available each month, making it impossible for a veteran to receive a car.

"The chief difficulty," the report continues, "appears to be that veterans are not given the correct picture of the true situation; that their hopes are built up, and when they are faced with the reality, they are naturally embittered and disappointed. Army and Navy officers in charge of separation centers give them glowing accounts of their rights and opportunities as returning veterans, and government agencies in charge of the disposal of surplus property also fail to advise the veteran not only of the priorities of the various government agencies, but also of the lack of saleable items. Due to the present scarcity of these vehicles the various governmental bodies but up all of them."

Ft. Sheridan PW camp personnel reduced to 300

During the fifteen months German prisoners of war worked for both private contractors and government installations in Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan, they performed labor valued at almost $9,000,000, it was announced by Brig. Gen. John T. Pierce, Commanding General of Fort Sheridan. The official closing of all branch camps today, April 6, was also announced, making an end to the fifteen month period Fort Sheridan has supervised this project which has earned for the United States treasury $8,894,795.22. By the end of April only 300 prisoners will be left in this area. These prisoners will do work in connection with Separation Center activities at Fort Sheridan for the time being. Prisoner of war labor reached a high last August when nearly 15,000 prisoners of war were working in over 25 communities out of 48 branch camps.

Youth center

In a previous issue of your paper the people of Arlington Hts. were presented with the problem of finding a supervisor for the Youth Center. It was suggested that some member of the community might fill the bill nicely.

As a student of A. H. T. H. S. and a future member of the Youth Center, I would like to give my opinion.

I believe that if the Youth Center is going to succeed, it must be supervised by someone who is not interested in running the town. This person can be found. Please don't misunderstand.

I fully realize the time and efforts that have been put forth by the members of the various committees concerned. They have spent a lot of their valuable time on getting the Youth Center started. That is why I am sure that they will find a means of getting a supervisor whose ONLY interest would be in helping "the kids" run our Youth Center.

You, the adult promoters of the Youth Center, have certainly done a swell job so far, so please don't spoil all your hard work now.

NO 250 YET

The bowling season is fast drawing to a close and there has been no 250 score yet in the Palatine major league to take that pot of gold the boys have been shooting for all winter.

Stan Arendt says "The more we bowl the further away we get." Only a few weeks more for somebody to get hot and grab off all that coin.

Purchase of U.S. bonds still at near-wartime pace here

The six-fold aim of the Treasury in continuing to sell Series E, F and G Savings Bonds in peacetime was explained today by Vernon L. Clark, national director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, Treasury Department. The Treasury's six aims in continuing to promote the sale of bonds after the successful conclusion of the Victory Loan, as stated by National Director Clark, are:

1. To combat inflation by urging Americans to save for bond investment instead of bidding up prices for scarce goods with their surplus cash.

2. To keep the savings bond investment total around its present $48,700,000,000 peak while money is plentiful and goods scarce in order to hold a reserve of spending power for better living and at the same time to provide a backlog of financial security for all thrifty Americans.

3. To foster the national thrift habit millions have acquired through patriotic buying of war bonds. (From May 1, 1941 to March 1, 1946, Americans invested more than $56,000,000,000 in Series E, F and G Bonds, more than $41,000,000,000 in E. Bonds alone).

4. To carry on the payroll savings plan at the request of 90% of the 27,000,000 wage and salary earners who invested regularly in bonds during the war. (Firms are continuing this service to their employees without cost to the Government).

5. To establish a thrift and national finance educational program in the schools for the 25,000,000 pupils who by 1945 were regularly buying stamps and bonds.

6. To keep ownership of the public debt spread among as many Americans as possible so the interest may go to them as holders of savings bonds rather than to a comparatively few banks, corporate or individual investors. (Widespread holding of government bonds is a powerful factor for national unity and a strong stimulant of interest in affairs of government).

In the first quarter of 1946, Mr. Clark added, the American people, without wartime pressure invested more than $2,100,000,000 in these savings bonds, or three-quarters as much as they put in to bonds in the first quarter of 1945 ($2,811,300,000) with the war still on against both Germany and Japan.

It Happened Here

It Came to Pass
Upon the meadows lies a low, white mist,
Soft, impenetrable, cold and white;

A finger touches it with rose
And then the splendor grows and grows
To a green ward with puffs of white

Rising on roseate wings of flight.
So is a paradise just newly born
To greet the radiance of morn.

The kindergarten was drawing and cutting windmills, a most fascinating occupation. "What makes the windmills go?" asked teacher. "Wind," chorused the children. One little boy looked up, his face brightening with the birth of an idea. "That's why the name is like it is—huh, Teacher?" S'Amuser.

Barrington club chorus in spring concert

The first Spring Concert of the Barrington Music Club Chorus will be presented Monday night, April 29, at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Barrington High School.

This great chorus of 40 men's and women's voices, together with vocal and instrumental soloists, is planning the first musical performance of its kind that Barrington has enjoyed in many years.

Organized in the Fall of 1945, the membership of the Chorus is made up entirely of talented Barrington men and women. This vocal group is part of the Barrington Music Club's plan for the stimulation of greater interests and enjoyment of fine music in the Barrington area.

Theodore Lams, one of America's leading organists and Assistant Professor of Theory and Pipe Organ at Northwestern University, has been conductor of the organization since its formation.

His work with the Evanston Music Festival, as conductor of the Chicago Bach Chorus, as well as his collaboration with the late Frederick Stock of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, is well known to music lovers throughout Chicago.

An admission charge of 60 cents, tax included (children under 16, 25 cents), will be made for the concert to enlist the support and cooperation of the communities in this area in the maintenance of the Chorus's activity for the coming season.

Herd owners and vets cooperate to beat Mastitis

Beginning June 30 the organized fight against infectious bovine mastitis will be handled by herd owners and veterinary practitioners.

The state-wide demonstration program in bovine mastitis control, in effect since April, 1944, will be continued by dairymen through the cooperation of their local veterinarians and the use of the laboratory facilities of the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Illinois.

Seven Illinois veterinarians, known as war food assistants, working with 674 dairymen and veterinary practitioners, tested 47,210 cows and cleaned up a total of 8 infected herds in 18 months.

Only a small fraction of the herd owners in Illinois are taking adequate precautions against the spread of this disease. Annual loss in Illinois has been estimated at about 176 million pounds of milk, or the milk produced by 55,000 average Illinois cows. Mastitis shortens the lactating life of dairy cows, reduces milk quality and quantity and lowers the farmer's monthly milk check.

These losses may be largely avoided if herd owners will follow the simple plan of mastitis control outlined by the Extension Service. Information on the control program may also be obtained from the local veterinarian and the county farm adviser. The herd program on the control of bovine mastitis is available upon request.

Bred poultry contest dates set for Illinois

Poultrymen who are entering the "chicken of tomorrow" contest in Illinois will have their birds displayed and judged at the State Fair the week of August 12. Cliff D. Carpenter, president of the Institute of American Poultry Industries, Chicago, said that participants must hatch their chicks the week of May 6 as the state contest is to run fourteen weeks. The Illinois contest will be part of a national three-year program in which $8,000 in cash awards are offered by A & P Food Stores, Carpenter pointed out. A contest entry will consist of a minimum of 100 and a maximum of 300 chickens.

"Our objective is to encourage poultrymen to breed a superior meat-type bird which will yield at least 10 per cent more flesh in relation to bone structure," Carpenter said. "Every breed or cross-breed and even unknown strains will be given a chance to compete so that all breeders will have an equal opportunity to participate. The only restriction is that the stock must be of known origin and the exhibitor must be able to reproduce it."

Poultrymen who wish to enter the contest may obtain descriptive booklets that include all regulations and score cards by writing Dr. L. E. Card, animal husbandry department, University of Illinois.

Insecticides for corn borer are impractical

Insecticides will control corn borers effectively, but using insecticides for that purpose isn't necessarily practical, says G. C. Decker, entomologist with the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station and Natural History Survey. Insecticide treatment can't be profitable unless the potential crop loss is greater than the cost of the treatment. Decker figures that in 1945 chemical control of borers cost $20 an acre, counting materials and labor for four applications of dust applied at five-day intervals, beginning when the eggs started to hatch. Producers of market garden sweet corn, hybrid seed corn or canning corn may find the use of insecticides profitable even at the present cost, but a poor or mediocre crop of field corn couldn't possibly carry a $20 an acre overhead for such treatment. Decker points out that neither the Experiment Station nor the Natural History Survey recommends insecticides for borer control at the present time.

GI on-the-job farm training now available

Veterans in Cook County will be interested in the On-The-Job Farm Training Program now being made available to them. This is one of the educational benefits provided under the GI Bill of Rights about which all farm veterans and veterans interested in farm business should be informed.

Having qualified for this training the veteran is entitled to the educational subsistence in the amount of $65 per month for a single man and $80 per month for married veterans.

Basically, the program requires that a veteran work out an agreement with a farmer who will provide a minimum of two thousand hours of training during the year. In addition the veteran agrees to attend a minimum of one hundred forty-four hours of technical instruction in agricultural subjects during the year. This instruction will be provided by the vocational agriculture teachers at the Palatine and Bloom Township High Schools in Cook County. One evening session per week will be arranged for this instruction.

Recently inquiries on this subject have indicated the need of information meetings to discuss the Cook County program, announces C. H. Dick, assistant farm adviser. These meetings will be scheduled in the near future at both the Palatine and Bloom Township High Schools and all veterans and others interested in the program are invited to attend.

Artificial breeding raises dairy breeding

Results obtained by artificial breeding associations in Illinois show the great possibilities of increasing returns from dairy cows through use of superior sires, according to C. S. Rhode, professor of dairy husbandry.

Set up to make proved sires available to large numbers of dairymen and breeders, the associations are nonprofit organizations owned and operated by farmers, and they provide better sires than most farmers could own.

individually. The associations make individual herd bulls unnecessary.

Three artificial breeding associations have been established in Illinois as a result of the desire of breeders and dairymen for a breeding program to make sustained improvement in production and eliminate the chances of having poor sires, lower production and bring undesirable inheritance into herds.

Plans are developing to extend the service of the three existing associations so that any county or community in the state able to guarantee around 1,000 cows in a radius of 20 to 35 miles can have artificial service. The plans entail placing in each community a capable technician to whom semen can be shipped for use.

Citing the case of "King," a bull of the Northern Illinois Association Rhode says 22 dam and daughter comparisons show that his daughters average 115 pounds more butterfat than their dams, the daughters producing an average of 14,780 pounds of milk and 520 pounds of butterfat.

"King" is an exceptional sire, Rhode says; he was bred to 271 cows during January, 1945. Dairymen interested in this program can write directly to Professor Rhode or contact their local farm adviser. Where sufficient interest exists in a county, the University will send a representative to a meeting to explain the work in detail.

Pirates vs Leyden on track Friday

Visitors rule favorites by far

Friday afternoon Palatine will take on the powerful Leyden Eagles in the third varsity meet of the season. Leyden will come to Palatine with two boys who won three Northeast titles last spring. Quaranta took both the 880 and the mile and Barnes, also a junior won the discus throw and represented Leyden in the state meet in this event. John Michaels, a senior, is one of the best of the Northeast loop hurdlers. Stein placed in the conference. Gemino is a fast junior 100 and 220 man. Art Murawski was second in the league 440 last year and broke the record in the NE-NW frosh soph meet. Others of Coach Dale St. John's eight lettermen include Schutt, a broad jumper, and Jaraka, a pole vaulter. According to the Leyden coach the team will be well balanced except in the high jump and broad jump. The opening two meets have brought out the fact that Palatine has few strong competitors in track. There are a lot of mediocre boys at present and some may develop into potential winners as many lack experience and training. They will be no match for teams like Leyden and Arlington Heights, but later when they meet up with teams of their own league the experience gained against fast competition will be a valuable asset. Right now the only Palatine boys who have displayed first class performances are Henker in the 880 and 440, Werner in the pole vault and Wente in the mile. However, looking down the list of entries, we find that nearly all the remaining boys are in their first year of varsity competition.

Leyden nine looks good as they whip Waukegan

With only two returning lettermen available Leyden is off to a fine start in baseball. After dropping a 3-2 decision to LaGrange the Eagles whipped Waukegan 3-2 in the first game of a double bill last Saturday. In the second game Leyden reserves lost 4-0. Leyden has an outstanding letterman returning in their hurler Voss who held Waukegan to three hits and collected three himself in four trips driving in all of Leyden's runs. Quaranta, Leyden's great distance runner on the track team, is the only other returning baseball regular, playing at first base. In Saturday's first game Voss got three hits, Bolig two and scored two runs. Quaranta one hit, and Tideman one hit. In the second game Leyden got only one hit but Mueller on four bingles.

Cards swamp Woodstock, 22-1

by GUS LADAS
The Arlington Heights Cardinals baseball nine swamped Woodstock Friday, 22-1, in their first conference game. The Cards showed excellent fielding, hitting and pitching. Woodstock, playing their first game of the season, looked ragged and couldn't keep up with the Cards. In the opening inning Arlington pushed across three runs on two errors. The second frame they scored five more, plus five more in the third. The losers scored their only tally in the third segment with two hits and a walk. In the fourth inning the Cards scored four, two in the fifth, and two in the sixth, when the game was called by darkness. Pitching honors for the winners were divided by Gail Bach and Bill Robinson.

Libertyville downs Palatine in dual meet

Libertyville defeated Palatine 75 1/2 to 37 1/2 in a dual track meet last Friday. The Wildcats made some excellent marks for so early in the season, especially in the running events. The time in the 100, 440 and mile was outstanding. Libertyville won, or at least tied for first, in all but two events. Palatine won the 880 and broad jump and tied for first in the pole vault and high jump. Kennedy, Libertyville sprinter, was higher scorer with 14 1/2 points with first places in the 100 and low hurdles. Johnson won the 220 and 440, the latter in the remarkable early season time of :55.3.

Schroeder was Libertyville's other double winner capturing first in both shot and discus, though the marks were below par. Henker won the 880 in good time, took second in the 440, and third in the discus to lead the Pirates with nine points. Palatine made as good marks as the previous week against Bensenville, but was up against superior opposition. 100 yd. dash: won by Kennedy, L. Jazwiec, L. 2nd: Stephan, P. 3rd: time: :10.7.
220 yd. dash: won by Johnson, L.

MAC SAYS:

BY GERALD A. McELROY

Indications are that it will again be Bensenville and Barrington fighting it out for the Northwest Conference baseball championship. Last year Barrington had a chance to tie the Bisons for the title if they could take the final game of the season, but the Bisons won 3-1 and finished the year with eight victories and a single defeat at Lake Zurich. Both schools have a lot of their best boys returning. To all indications we think we are backing the odds on favorite when we predict a repeat championship for Bensenville.

Pick Bisons to repeat baseball title

Coach Tom Meneguini's Bisons have the battery which won last year and the battery is easily 70% in high school ball. Tholander as a freshman hurled steady ball to top the league in victories and should be a mighty tough boy to face this year. Behind the plate the Bisons have the best receiver in the circuit and a .400 hitter in Webb. This lad is one of the best all round athletes of the year in the conference. The Bisons have three very good infielders returning in Helms, second base; Robertson, third; and Borg, first. Vuglar and Mueller are returning lettermen for the outfield. All Meneguini has to do is fill in at short and right field. There is a lot of interest in baseball at Bensenville due to summer Junior Legion ball and Meneguini has plenty of candidates who may even push some of the lettermen off the team.

Barrington has six lettermen

Barrington has six lettermen but will lack experienced pitching. Coach Graham has "Ollie" Emmerson, a good receiver; Jack Flock, one of the best infielders in the league at third and a .300 hitter; John Buell in left field, another .300 hitter; Geo. Lum at short; Bob Smith at second; and Pat Herriman at first. A complete infield, a star catcher, and a power hitter start toward a mighty good team. The Bronchos played a tie game with Arlington last week and takes them on again this week. The schedule of both the Bronchos and the Bisons is in an adjoining column.

Lakers strong shot and discus

Leading team in this area in the weight events this spring will be Crystal Lake's Tigers. Harold Legel, who went to the state to throw the discus as a sophomore, is now a senior and looks forward to a big season to round out a year in which he has been the number one athlete of the

Leyden truckmen swamp Bisons

Leyden swamped both the Bensenville varsity and frosh-soph track teams last Friday in meets held at Franklin Park. The Eagles beat the Bison varsity 105-13 while the junior team was winning 72-19. Bensenville got only five places in the varsity meet as Ernsting took seconds in both hurdles, Johnson tied for first in the pole vault at 10 feet and Pittman and Blaesing and Riley got thirds in the discus, high jump and 440.

The hurdling marks made by Michaels of Leyden were unusually fine. He ran the highs in 16 seconds flat. Quaranta's 4:53.8 mile was also outstanding and Clark's 55 second quarter was fine for the opening meet. Leyden had good marks in all events except the high jump, broad jump, and 100 yard dash.

Warren Friday

Arlington nine trims Barrington by 13-1

The Arlington Cardinals took a lone run in the fourth, and then scored a cluster of five in the sixth. Barrington scored their lone run in the fifth on two hits and an error. Outstanding defensively was Ozzie Aldrich with two nice catches. Bob Wille led the Cardinal hitters with three safeties. Aldrich came through with two doubles and George Payne with one. All together, the Cards collected eleven hits against Barrington's five. Friday the Cards meet Warren here in their second conference

Barrington looks good in Northwest track

Broncos face test Thursday at Libertyville

Barrington looks forward to a Northwest Conference track championship this year, their first since the league was reorganized in 1938. Coach Zech, in his first year at Barrington has eight experienced lettermen available who last year accounted for over 40 points in the league meet. This group looks like strong possibilities for seven first places in the league meet this year.

Bennett won both sprints last year and will have things his own way. He ran the 100 yard dash in :10.6 last year as a sophomore. Moore won the league cross country championship, Lund took second in both mile and half mile, and Flock was third in the 440. These boys all might cop first places. Buell was a consistent point getter in the weights, Smith and Simpson ran the hurdles and Gools teamed up with Lund in the distance events.

Thursday of this week Barrington will meet a good test at Libertyville. With Bensenville weak this year, Antioch very short on man power, and Palatine mediocre, it might turn out to be the year for the Bronchos to win. Lots can happen between now and the league meet.

Sheridan Ramblers complete season with 39-3 record

Fort Sheridan's mighty Ramblers have concluded their most successful season in history with a basketball victory record of 39 games in 42 starts.

The Ramblers, boasting a star-studded lineup, tallied 2,851 points during their 42 games for an average of 67.88 points a game while they held their opponents to 1,750 counters.

Included in their impressive record are such feats as winning the Sixth Service Command championship, the District and Illinois AAU championship and reaching the third round of the national AAU tournament before being eliminated by the San Francisco Dardis. Only other teams to defeat the Ramblers during the season were the Chicago Monarch professional basketball team, and Wright Field, one of the nation's outstanding service teams.

Star of the quintet from Fort Sheridan was Pvt. Dan Pippin, former All-American and All-Big Six center from the University of Missouri, who rated along with the nation's leading scorers with a total of 626 points during the season.

Spring! It's wonderful?

'Not for us it isn't' say gardeners

Tells of costs of cutting lawns, trees at NU

Spring! It's wonderful? "Not for us it isn't," groans Maurice Ekberg, superintendent of buildings and grounds at Northwestern University, gazing sadly out his windows at the budding oaks and the freshly greening shrubbery of the Evanston campus.

"Do you know that it costs us $7,664 each season just to trim and spray and fertilize those 1948 trees?" Mr. Ekberg continues. "Look at that grass—green already. Why, it has to be cut once a week when there's lot of rain. And each cutting costs exactly $475.04!"

"I doubt if one person in a thousand realizes the expense of merely maintaining the buildings and grounds," Mr. Ekberg continued. He pointed out that his department employed 247 persons and the total expenditures in 1945 amounted to $745,886, which is the equivalent at current interest rates of an income from a nineteen-million-dollar endowment. Ten years ago it cost $462,812 to maintain the buildings and grounds.

"Every spring we use at least a ton of grass seed. Last year we had to let a lot of things go and it still cost us"—Mr. Ekberg refers to his books—"43,857 to care for the campus, excluding the buildings. During the war we thought we might have to let part of the campus grow into hay because we just couldn't get the help. We even hired six coeds to rake leaves, but four of them quit when we couldn't get the uniforms we promised them."

Costs $700 to shovel snow

Rising labor and material costs and the addition of new buildings have increased costs substantially. In 1935 heat cost $144,000; last year its cost was $302,000. Janitor service used to cost $105,000; last year it was $172,000. Normal repairs and decorating to the University's 92 buildings cost $42,500 in 1935; they cost $111,500 in 1945. Telephone service cost $35,000 in 1935; last year it cost $74,518.

Spring is the busiest time for building and grounds, according to Mr. Ekberg, but the work does not stop in winter. "On cold days we burn 250 tons of coal. Last year we used 31,510 tons altogether. Snow is a problem, too. It costs $700 to remove it after each snowstorm. We spend $206 just to clean up Dyche Stadium after a football game. And in winter, with lights burning all day long, we are kept busy replacing them. New bulbs cost $7,600 last year—and the electricity bill was $100,000.00.

In summer at least 15 men working full time are required to care for the lawns and shrubs. "Then," adds Mr. Ekberg, "there are the beaches to operate and that takes lifeguards and gate-men and clean-up men. And—as if we didn't have enough trouble keeping weeds out of the football field—the University acquired a golf course with 18 greens to keep groomed!"

"No, we don't enjoy spring very—hmm," muses Mr. Ekberg, breathing deeply of the fresh, spring air through the open window. "Why, it is a beautiful day! Think I'll inspect the campus—good excuse for a walk you know!"

Trainees under GI bill must show progress

With practically every college and school in Illinois reporting its veteran students making scholarship marks above the average, it is emphasized that veterans receiving "on-the-job" and apprentice training are also required to make satisfactory progress in their field.

The GI Bill, in effect, places trainees on a trial status during the first year. Failure to make satisfactory progress may result in suspension and a denial of further training by the Veterans Administration.

Service Officer Walter S. Haynes of the Illinois Veterans Commission, with offices at 41 So. Prospect (above Walgreens) Park Ridge has the application forms and is ready to advise and assist veterans in filing for education, agricultural and "on-the-job" training, as well as for any other benefits arising from their service.

Racing at two parks to net $1,075,000 stake prizes

Arlington Park,
Washington
set for year

Arlington Park and Washington Park today announced 1946 stake programs which are the richest in their history. Benjamin F. Lindheimer, executive director of both tracks, stated that $1,075,000 in added money will be offered in the 36 stakes scheduled during 67 days of racing at the two meetings. High grade overnight events will bring total distribution to approximately $2,500,000.

Arlington Park will operate at its own plant for the first time since 1942. The two programs have been coordinated, however, so as to provide a continuous series of major events throughout the summer.

"Continuing our efforts to help build American racing we have enlarged our program by offering eight new stakes and by increasing the value of many of our established events," Mr. Lindheimer said.

From the opening of Arlington Park on June 17 to the closing of Washington Park on Labor Day, September 2, Chicago will have a richer succession of stake events than any other racing center in the country. The program includes two $60,000 stakes, three at $50,000, one at $40,000, two at $35,000, six at $30,000, fifteen at $25,000, and seven at $20,000. Purses for overnight events will range up to $10,000. Both tracks will follow their established policy of offering larger overnight purses for the better grade horses.

In the two year old division there are ten stakes, five at each track, ranging from $20,000 to $35,000 in added money. The high points of the juvenile schedule are the Arlington Futurity and the Washington Park Futurity, each of which will gross in excess of $80,000.

The program for three year olds will be built around the Arlington Classic and the American Derby. Each carries $60,000 in added money. Each will gross approximately $100,000. Eight stakes will be run in this division during the coordinated meeting.

vision during the coordinated meeting.

The competition for three year olds and up will be topped by three $50,000 handicaps—the Stars and Stripes, the Arlington and the Washington Park. A major addition to the schedule in this division is the $40,000 Whirlaway at a mile and an eighth. There are 18 stakes for three year olds and up.

Racing on the turf again will be featured—both tracks having picturesque grass courses with safely banked turns. The $25,000 Grassland and the $20,000 Meadowland are America's richest events of this type.

The stake schedule at Arlington follows:

- June 19—The Clang, $20,000.
- June 22—The Hyde Park Stakes, $20,000.
- June 26—The Equipose Mile, $30,000.
- June 29—The Skokie, $25,000.
- July 3—The Pollyanna Stakes, $25,000.
- July 4—The Stars and Stripes, $50,000.
- July 6—The Myrtlewood, $25,000.
- July 10—The Modesty, $25,000.
- July 13—The Arlington Futurity, $35,000; The Dick Welles, $30,000.
- July 17—The Domino, $25,000.
- July 18—The Cleopatra, $25,000.
- July 20—The Arlington Handicap, $50,000; The Lassie Stakes, $25,000.
- July 24—The Primer Stakes, $20,000.
- July 25—The Matron, $30,000.
- July 27—The Classic, $60,000; The Grassland, $25,000.

Mrs. Wm. Walton will direct girl scout camp

Mrs. Geo. Glow has reservations

With the approach of summer and school vacations, attention is drawn to camp plans and Girl Scouts begin to count the days until the opening of their camp activities.

As chairman of the camp committee for the Arlington Heights Girl Scout Council, Mrs. Ellsworth A. Meineke plays an important role in the completion of arrangements for this part of Girl Scout work. Those assisting her on this committee are Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. George Glow, Mrs. H. J. Carr, Mrs. H. B. Evans, Mrs. J. B. Desch, Mrs. E. W. Winkelman, Mrs. Alfred Sander, Mrs. Marvin M. Hentzel and Mrs. George Edgecumbe, whose home is Mt. Prospect. Several other committees also are working toward the success of the camp.

Mrs. George Glow is in charge of reservations and it is hoped that scouts or their mothers will make their intentions known soon as possible. Mrs. Glow will take reservations for both the local Day Camp and the Established Girl Scout Camp in Wisconsin.

The Arlington Heights Day Camp will have two periods. Girl Scouts will camp four days beginning June 17, and Brownies will camp four days beginning June 24. The camp is in Elk Grove, Forest Preserve, which is a short driving distance, and simplifies transportation.

The Established Camp, Hickory Hill, sponsored by Des Plaines, but attended by scouts near there is in Edgerton, Wis., and will have several camp periods beginning June 24 to July 7; July 8 to July 21; July 21 to Aug. 4; Aug. 5 to August 18, also two one week periods, Aug. 5 to Aug. 11, and Aug. 12 to Aug. 18.

The registration fee for Established Camp is two dollars and the board is $27 for a period of two weeks. It is pointed out that the second and third periods are most crowded.

Mrs. Alva H. Meyer, president of the local G. S. council is very much pleased to announce that Mrs. William Walton has consented to be camp director for the day camp. She has had valuable experience in this work, as she was, before her marriage, playground instructor in Oak Park recreational programs. Council officers are enthusiastic in praise of Mrs. Walton's ability to direct children and to bring out their best cooperation in camp spirit.

Scouting has interested Mrs. Walton for several years, and before Arlington Heights scouting work was organized she was a worker in Camp Fire Girls. She served as scout troop leader for some years and now is a member of the board and active in training work for troop leaders.

Asked which phase of scouting she considered of most importance, Mrs. Walton emphasized camp life. She expressed the opinion that the "do-your-share" theme of camp life is of inestimable value in shaping well-rounded and unselfish personalities.

In addition to Girl Scout work, Mrs. Walton enjoys painting for a hobby. Oil is her preferred medium, and landscape or still life her favorite subjects. But at Day Camp there will be no palette and brushes, or canvas, because directing more than 200 girls will be a strenuous schedule in itself.

Effects of 100% valuation to be discussed

Northeastern Illinois businessmen will consider the practical effects of the new Illinois 100% assessment laws at a "tax clinic" to be held Monday, April 15, in Chicago.

One of the tax authorities scheduled to speak is Walker Butler of Chicago, state senator from the thirteenth district, author of the "Butler Bills", requiring full-value property assessment, which went into effect Jan. 1. O. P. Westervelt, an attorney of Peoria, will describe what full value assessment means to the businessman and Paul C. Rosenquist, director of the Illinois department of revenue, will discuss the administration of the new assessment laws.

After presenting a 20-minute talk on his phase of the subject, each speaker will become a member of a panel to answer specific questions from the audience. Lynn A. Stiles, research supervisor and railroad assessor for the department of revenue, and H. Gordon Bollman, of the Cook County assessor's office, will be the other panel members.

The luncheon conference, which will last from 12:15 to 4:00 p. m., will be held in the red lacquer room of Chicago's Palmer House.

The April 15 meeting will be the first in a series of conferences to be held in key cities of Illinois to answer such questions as: Will the average business concern's tax bill be higher in the future under the 100% assessment act? Can tax increases be avoided? Will a referendum be necessary in each community?

The Chicago Stockyards is the largest single live animal market in the world.

single live animal market in the world. The products of the fertile upper Mississippi prairies and livestock from the western ranges gravitate naturally to the nation's transportation center, creating here the focal point of food processing—one of America's most important and largest industries.

Chicago's preeminence in this industry has placed it first in the production of fresh beef, mutton, lamb, pork, cooked hams, fresh and dried sausage, lard and oleomargarine.

Because the Middle West is the nation's granary, Chicago and Northern Illinois is a huge grain distributing center. The Chicago Board of Trade handles 86 per cent of the entire nation's trading in wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley and soy bean futures—the largest market of its kind in the world.

With its ideal economic balance among industries, trades, and agriculture, this area is indeed the heart of the world's richest inland empire.

The same natural advantages that have contributed to its importance in food processing have helped to build its leadership in industry, transportation, and marketing. No other center provides such easy access to as many other large markets. No other distributing point offers such economy of time and distance in serving the nation—and the entire world.

These are some of the reasons why this area is well launched upon another period of industrial progress. For industries contemplating location or expansion, the unequalled advantages of this diversified area deserve thorough investigation.

Chicago and Northern Illinois

...Center of an Agricultural Empire

It was inevitable that Chicago should become a world food center. Here in Northern Illinois a billion dollars worth of food products are processed annually. Here, a hundred thousand people are employed in this industry alone.

Forty per cent of America's farm output, in dollar value, is produced in—or within overnight ride of—Northern Illinois. Thus Chicago has become the largest packing and food storage center, as well as the largest industries located in this area have these outstanding advantages: Railroad Center of the United States • World Airport • Inland Waterways • Geographical Center of U. S. Gets citation for fishing in Florida

Carl Stollstorff of Palatine has earned a citation in the 11th annual $10,000 Metropolitan Miami fishing tournament with a 7 lb. 10 oz. bonefish which he caught while fishing in Miami waters last month.

Stollstorff's catch trails the leader in the bonefish class by a little more than three pounds, but has come in for a citation as an outstanding catch in the competition which already has attracted more than 275,000 participants from 31 states, Canada and Puerto Rico.

The tournament, sponsored by the Cities of Miami and Miami Beach, opened January 13 and closes April 21. It is open to all rod and reel anglers without entry fee.

To divide boy scout district in new setup

Dist. 2 officers of N. W. Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, voted at their meeting Wednesday evening in the OCD room of Des Plaines City Hall to divide Dist. 2 geographically because of its oversize and the difficulty of carrying on a Scouting Administration effectively.

Byron Foote, Dist. 2 chairman announced that the rapid increase of packs, troops and senior units of scouting in Dist. 2, coupled with the shortage of man power made it virtually impossible to administer the scouting program effectively.

The council at their last meeting voted to grant full authority to the geographical division of Dist. 2 if their leaders so desired. The present district, he continued, is made of Des Plaines, Wheeling, Schiller Park, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights and Arlington Heights. The division would leave Des Plaines, Wheeling and Schiller Park as Dist. 2 and Mt. Prospect, Prospect Hts., and Arlington Heights the new district.

Anticipated rapid population growth and increased efficiency in executive administration are the only reasons for the division.

Each officer gave his opinion and finally nominations for temporary chairman were in order. C. B. Jones, Oscar Kurtz and George Sheppard were nominated, the final ballot giving the temporary chairmanship to Oscar Kurtz of Arlington Heights.

District officers and members present included:

Prospect Heights, Geo. Westerman, vice chairman; Geo. Sheppard, neighborhood commissioner; Wm. Andrew, scoutmaster troop 36; Byron Bohrer, committeeman; J. R. Campbell, committeeman.

Wheeling, A. Zollner, cubmaster.

Mt. Prospect, Arnold Hatch, Dist. Publicity chairman.

Arlington Heights, Oscar Kurtz, council chairman of advancement; C. B. Jones, asst. district commissioner; Ben Cochrane, district member; Wm. Mueller, T-37 committeeman chairman; Vern Sturm, T-32 committeeman chairman; C. H. Doellefeld, 232 committee chairman; Dr. J. E. Hunt-singer, 232 cubmaster.

Stan Huntington announced an assistant scout executive contract has been signed, effective June 1. Camporee will be held at Camp Baden Powell June 13, 14 and 15. Two men have been appointed on the camping committee to report on a new and much needed camp site. Troop camping course will be given some time soon within April. Commissioner's course was well attended and a big success.

Arnold Hatch, district publicity chairman, declared that he has written nearly 100 articles, covering district activities for the most part, in his year as scout publicity man. All have appeared in the Paddock Publications, Des Plaines Suburban Times, Des Plaines Journal and the Chicago Sunday Tribune.

Bill Davis, district commissioner, announced that the scoutmasters round table will be held in the public school Friday 12th at Mt. Prospect at 8 p. m. All scoutmasters of both districts are invited.

George Sheppard invited everyone to attend the big celebration May 4th and 5th at Prospect Hts. in honor of the new boy scout cabin recently completed there. Dedication ceremony will occur at 2 p. m. Sunday, May 5.

Elected official of archers

Henry Collignon of Arlington Heights, whose interest in archery is unmatched in this locality, has been elected vice-president of the Chicago Field Archers Club. He is also a member of the National Field Archers Association, The California bowmen hunters, the Wisconsin bow hunters and the Calumet field archery club.

Hostess at White House
Dolly Madison was the first White House hostess to hold that honor for more than eight years, as she was the official hostess for Pres. Thomas Jefferson, a widower, when her husband, James Madison, was secretary of state, and was hostess for the eight years in which Madison was President.
